

Serge Vandervorst, expert in industrial strategy, technology transfer, industrial mergers / acquisitions, technical and scientific developments, information and communication technologies.

Serge Vandervorst, MD from Brussels University (ULB, chemistry and later researcher in solid state physics), owns a degree in financial analysis (IAG), occupied top management level and board member functions in various industrial groups throughout the world. In key strategical positions, he has been involved in merger / acquisition operations and in depth industrial changes.

His experience has been primarily focused towards high technological added value industrial sectors.

He developed a broad and in depth knowledge of all aspects of industries.

REFERENCES

- Diamant Boart
- Sigma Coatings
- JKS Boyles (Ont., Canada)
- Dumont Instruments

KNOW HOW

- Strategical development plan
- Complex projects management
- Spin off setting up
- Mergers / acquisitions
- Industrial and technological audit
- Change management

Hobbies

Sailing, fooding, œnology, classical and barocco music

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Europe (Belgium, France, UK, ...),
- Australasia (Australia, Singapore, Philippines, ...)
- South Africa
- Canada
- Iran